

The “O Antiphons” of Advent for Grades 5-8

INTRODUCTION

The “O Antiphons” are sung on the last seven days of Advent. Each antiphon, or short refrain, begins with the word “O.” Each one calls Jesus, the Son of God, by a different name. Each one expresses the longing of God’s people for the coming of Christ at Christmas and at the end of time. The O Antiphons have been a part of the Church’s prayer since at least the eighth century.

Do this activity with your class or at home with your family. Beginning with December 17, pray the O Antiphon, and sing the verse of “O Come, O Come Emmanuel” assigned to that day. Decide what symbol you will draw on your ornament. Complete your ornament and hang it on a branch you have planted in a vase or on your Christmas tree.
